M. N. POWERS, Pastor.

Quite a number of people from this city and vicinity have been at Arcadia this week attending the Methodist Assembly. They report a large crowd and a splendid program.—Bismarck Gazette.

Among the visitors to the Assembly last week was W. W. Hinchey, who made the trip from Cape Girardeau in an automobile. He found quite a lot of changes had taken place since he was here twelve years ago.

The Pilot Knob school directors have not yet agreed on teachers for the ensuing year. And we are informed there is no likelihood of an early solution of the difficulty. The board seems to be securely locked.

Rev. Irl R. Hicks' lecture, "God's Weather Mill," at the Assembly last Thursday evening, was deserving the vast audience which gave it hearing. In matter and manner Dr. Hicks is always instructive and entertaining.

Mrs. Anna Callicotte, of Prosser, Washington, was a caller at this office last Friday. Mrs. Callicotte is a daughter of Mr. Joseph Thompson of the west end of the county and was on her way to visit home folk. Mr. Callicotte is now located in St. Louis.

We hear that the beer depot in St. Francois county, midway between Pilot Knob and Middlebrook, is doing a "land office business" since Iron county went dry. It is said the proprietors think of opening a saloon there in the near future.

Mr. S. T. Wilson, superintendent of Mr. Kimber's "Winwood Farm," Pilot Knob, last Saturday brought to this office a pair of beautiful five beautiful golden and red plums. They were as perfect as any picture ever painted and truly delightful to look upon.

We had no rain in the valley Saturday, but the mail carrier to the Silver Mines and the one to the west end were both drenched while on their routes. We had but a few drops of rain in town Monday evening. On Arcadia Heights there was a good shower.

Mr. and Mrs. F. E. DeWeese, of Ironton, Mo., arrived in the city last Sunday for a week's visit to Mr. and Mrs. Minor M. York, 1207 Jersey street. Mrs. DeWeese has a beautiful soprano voice which has given much pleasure to those who have heard her sing.—Quincy, (Ill.) Whig.

Our friend of nearly half a century, S. McSpaden, of Caledonia, with his good wife, were in Ironton Monday on their way home after a stay at the M. E. Assembly. We are glad to say that Mr. McSpaden is hale and hearty and possesses far more energy than many a younger man.

But one day the past week when the thermometer failed to go as high as the hundred mark; that was Saturday, when 95 was the maximum. On Thursday and Friday 104 was recorded. Last night the wind blew from the north and this (Wednesday) morning is delightful. BUT NO RAIN.

The fourth quarterly meeting for the year will be held at Fort Hill Methodist Church next Sunday. Presiding Elder Court will preach in the morning, to be followed by the Holy Communion. Arcadia Valley Bible Class at 9:30 A. M. Sunday School 9:45, Epworth League and preaching at night by the Pastor.

Two vacancies appear on the Democratic primary ticket, that of Representative and Presiding Judge of the Court. For Representative the name of Smith Goff, of Belgrade, and for Presiding Judge, S. P. Johnson, of Liberty township, are mentioned. Both are good men for these vacancies.—Potosi Independent.

W. H. R. Brown and wife of St. Louis were in Ironton several days the past week. For many years Will was an attaché of the REGISTER office and a mighty good boy he is, too. For the past eight years he has been in the employ of the Pullman Company as conductor and now has a run between St. Louis and San Antonio, Texas.

A private pension bill, allowing Robert Hill, Esq., of Ironton, a pension of one dollar a day, has passed both houses of Congress, and all that is necessary for the measure to become a law is the signature of the President. Mr. Hensley, we are told, introduced the measure in the House, and Senator Stone looked after it in the Senate.

We are now in the fourteenth week of this devastating drouth. In all that time there has been scarcely two inches of rainfall, and the desolation seems complete. Scarcely a day that there is not a good prospect for rain, but the clouds pass over. The heat the past week has been awful and the nights the most trying ever known in the valley.

A representative of the civil service commission was here last Thursday having with him the papers submitted to the commission by the four applicants for the Des Arc post-office, viz.: Dr. E. E. Whiteside, W. E. McKee, Miss Allie Fitz and Mrs. N. A. Farr. The purpose of the gentleman's visit was to convince the applicants that the grading had been fairly and equitably done. His mission was not a howling success.

A jury in Squire Hasche's court last Friday gave W. D. Fletcher a verdict for $100 damages against the owners of the dogs that got among his sheep on the Arcadia Assembly Grounds a month or more ago. Mr. Fletcher had ten sheep killed and twelve crippled. The jury awarded the full amount asked for. The owners of the dogs are H. B. Krenning, J. B. Evans, W. N. Knight, Chas. Whelahan, Chas. El-dracher. The case was appealed to the circuit court.

From the Quincy, (Ill.) Whig of July 27: "Miss Ida and Miss Sara Derrick gave a delightful morning party and musicale in their rooms in the Townsend apartments on Thursday. They met their guests on the fine old porch, where they spent an hour or so, going then into the parlor where there was a real musical treat in several songs from Mrs. DeWeese, of Ironton, Mo., guest of Mrs. Minor York, and from Mrs. Dan Stine, with piano selections by Mrs. Clyde Sears. After the charming music there were refreshments of several kinds of delicious cake and ice cold ginger ale."

Virgil Gale and Carl Trauernicht "biked" over to Arcadia last Saturday on a tandem, but all is not well unless it ends well. They got there all right but returning, Iron Mountain was their limit with a broken chain. They sounded the news home over telephone of the disaster and prepared to spend the night on the benches in the railroad station. It was just eleven o'clock when the noise of an approaching auto awoke them and they realized that "Bill" Silvey had come to their rescue. The boys say the next time they go to Arcadia it won't be on a tandem.—Farmington Times.

There were two unusually large congregations the last week of the Methodist Assembly. One was on Thursday night when Rev. Irl R. Hicks, of St. Louis, talked on "God's Weather Mill" and Sunday morning when Dr. J. W. Lee of St. John's Church, St. Louis, preached. On both occasions the immense tabernacle was filled to overflowing. The Assembly closed Sunday night. Everybody agrees that the session was by far the most successful in the history of the Assembly, and those in charge have been generously complimented and congratulated. The programme was excellent and the talent as good as the land affords. If attendance, notwithstanding the drouth and the extremely unpleasant weather conditions resultant thereon, was up to the standard of former years. Had the season been a favorable one there is no question but that the hospitality of the Assembly would have been taxed to the utmost to care for all the visitors. Everybody is pleased and delighted at the outcome of this year's Encampment. The Arcadia Assembly will grow greater and better, year by year.

All kinds of Lawn Furniture. Call and let us show you what we have. A. RIEKE & SON.

Have you tried the New drink called Chio Chic, which can be had at the Kandy Kitchen?

The Baptist Assembly

The People of the Valley Invited.

The Missouri Baptist Assembly begins next Tuesday night, August 4. The moon will be just right. The people from over the state have been gathering for some weeks, and next Monday and Tuesday will come in by the train load. The people of the valley are welcome at all our meetings.

WHEN TO COME.

The forenoons and the evenings are the times to attend during week days. We have no program in the afternoons except on Sundays. From 8:15 to 10 o'clock each morning the training school classes are held. From 10 to 12 o'clock each day there are lectures on Bible and Missionary topics. At 6:30 o'clock comes the Sunset Rock Prayer Meeting. At 7:30 our singing leader, E. O. Sellers, will conduct a song service. At 8 o'clock every evening, Rev. John E. White, D. D., will preach.

A GREAT PREACHER.

The Baptist Assembly spares no pains in bringing to Ironton the greatest preachers in our denomination. A business man in Ironton said to me the other day, "The Baptist Assembly gets a better preacher every year. Will he be still better this year?" We invite you to come and see. We introduce to you this year the pastor of the Second Baptist Church of Atlanta, Ga., Rev. John E. White, D. D. Come and hear him every night except Saturdays and the two Sundays at 10:30.

SUNDAYS ON THE HEIGHTS.

Come and take part in the model Sunday school at 9 o'clock, fully equipped in all departments. See what well-trained people can make of a Sunday school. Preaching at 10:30 A. M. by Dr. White. Come on time. Note the hour. Sunday afternoon, Aug. 9, Rev. John E. Moore, D. D., of New York, will preach at 3 o'clock. On Sunday afternoon, Aug. 16, President J. P. Greene, of Wm. Jewell College, will preach. Both Sunday nights Dr. White will preach.

NO CHARGE FOR THE MEETINGS.

All services at the Tabernacle are free. The public is invited to come. For the use of the swimming pool, the athletic grounds and other features, we make a charge of one dollar for the season or twenty-five cents a day. But we make no charge at all for attendance at the meetings. We do ask all who come to give us their names at the entrance, because we want to know how many different people attend our Assembly. Last year there were 1,346, of whom 624 came from Arcadia Valley. We hope twice that many will come this year. You are all very welcome.

IMPROVEMENTS ON THE HEIGHTS.

Come and see what we have done to make our Assembly ground an attractive place. We have built this year a water tower holding 57,000 gallons, a new building for our two sanitary flush-water toilets, two shower bath houses, four new Assembly bungalows, and three new private bungalows. Our water works give us water to sprinkle the grounds with if it continues to be dry and dusty. If we can get a sprinkling wagon, we shall sprinkle the road leading up the Heights. If times are a little hard on account of the drouth, this year, come up on the Heights and join in the worship of God, and set your mind on higher things, and look away toward the land that is fairer than this.

HOWARD G. COLWELL, Corresponding Secretary.

Baptist Church Notes.

Sunday morning services at ten o'clock and consist of public worship, teaching by classes, and preaching by the pastor.

Evening services begin at eight o'clock, preaching by Pastor Riggs. At this meeting the associational letter will be read.

Great Bargains at the Hosiery and Underwear Sale at Brown's.

Des Arc Items.

I spent Sunday at the Arcadia Assembly and enjoyed the services, especially the Sunset Service conducted by the young people. The young man who led the service Sunday evening is one to be proud of. Such boys will govern our country in the future. I also enjoyed the talk by Mr. Manley a prominent former of Poplar Bluff, but now of the northern part of the state. He will go to Arkansas, after the Assembly, to see his father. I failed to hear the Wisdom sisters sing, as I did not get there until the evening services and they had left on No. 8.

I was down at Libourne, Mo., last week, 20 miles below Sikeston, on the Frisco Railroad. This is a thriving little town; about 600 inhabitants, a large schoolhouse with four teachers, stave factory, cotton factory, saw mill, one newspaper, two banks, two hotels (good ones), an opera house, and moving pictures above.

Stevenson & Fitz are during a fine business; sold $160 worth the day I was there—all cash. They cash tie tickets.

I stayed all night with my son, W. J. Adams, four recent graduates here that made me feel and see that Stevenson, who has been living with them since she was a child, has been married. I feel very sorry for her father, for she was his only daughter. He had educated her, and she just arrived at the age to comfort him, but she was married to a young man and I hope it will all end well. So, I will say to this young man. Deal with her kindly, cheer her young heart, and she will follow you blindly, and never depart.

I attended a revival meeting at Leper Wednesday of which Mr. Abernathy is in charge. The Baptists have built a beautiful little church there, 36x40, and cost $1,000. He is doing good work there and we are glad to know he is so successful in his work. Rev. Abernathy was once our pastor.

Miss Rable has gone west with his brother, who is in very bad health. I was as far out on the Missouri Southern last week as Reynolds. The corn is nearly all gone out there. The lumber business is dull, so many of the mills being out of water. I sold 600 cases of lard, people are buying more lard than meat. Chickens are very cheap out there.

My friend, Ed Smith, of Greenville, handed me a memorandum which he had found among some old papers of Hon. J. H. Ramey. It has no date on it, but after reading it over I soon learned by whom it was written—James Gardner, son of A. Gardner, who was railroad agent here in 1872. Young Gardner grew up to be a bright young man and married Miss Mary, sister of John Ramey. James Gardner died in 1870, while he was agent and owned his railroad. I have the memorandum highly and shall keep it in memory of old friends.

Jas. Hurrell is still very low. He is suffering from cancer of the stomach. In company with our pastor, Rev. Oscar Taylor, we called on him Sunday afternoon, and we found a number of Christians there, among them Rev. Hester of the Holiness College. He wanted some sacred hymns sung and then Rev. Taylor offered one of the most pathetic prayers I ever heard. After the prayer the sick man's face beamed with joy and with a smiling face he lifted his hands to heaven and asked the Lord to take him away. By the expression on his face you could see that he was ready to go when the Lord called. I could not keep from shedding tears. May we all be ready. Massey Rable is moving his family to Piedmont, where he will engage in the mercantile business.

John Stevenson is putting up a post office building on Main street, adjoining O. C. Morris' store. Dr. Whiteside will take charge of the office August 1st. He will move his family into the house vacated by Geo. Phillips, as it is more convenient to his office. Mr. Phillips will move his family into the house where Walter Fitz formerly lived.

Miss Allie Fitz was a visitor to Ironton last week and attended the M. E. Encampment.

Mrs. Wm. Loyd has sold her restaurant and will move into her old home. Marshall Stevenson is thinking of taking charge of the restaurant.

The applicants for the Des Arc post office were in Ironton Thursday to look over the examination papers which were at the courthouse for inspection. ISAAC.

Annapolis News.

Hot and dry. No rain for three weeks. Annapolis voted dry and seems determined to stay that way.

James Kitchell, of Bonham, Texas, is visiting his father in Annapolis. His family will be here later. He reports good crops in Texas.

James Middleton visited his mother Saturday and informs me she will soon move from Little Creek, near Chloride, to Annapolis. BULLETIN.

Register—With reference to the information furnished in the paid advertisement, over the signature of Isaac, in last week's issue of the REGISTER, relative to the vote at Vulcan and Des Arc, will say that a recent investigation justifies the statement that a conservative estimate gives Burnham, at least 90 per cent of the votes in question.—Adv.
